Summary

Content creator with hands-on experience building AI-generated visual series from scratch: sourcing references, writing precise generation prompts, maintaining character consistency across episodes, and refining outputs to meet specific aesthetic standards. Two hackathon wins in content creation. Detail-oriented, fast communicator, fully remote-ready.

Content Creation Experience

Privacy Chronicles (2025)

Zypherpunk Hackathon — Content Creation Track Winner (Mina Foundation)

5-episode educational series (70+ pages) on zero-knowledge proofs, built end-to-end using AI generation tools.

- Sourced visual references and built consistent character profiles across all episodes
- Wrote detailed AI prompts to generate characters that matched target aesthetic and brand consistency
- Refined generated images to catch and correct glitches, artifacts, and off-brand inconsistencies
- Managed full content pipeline from concept to final published output

Glass Wallet (2026)

Solana Privacy Hackathon — Winner

12-page interactive comic on blockchain privacy and wallet security.

- Created all character designs and visual assets using AI generation with precise prompting
- Maintained consistent character appearance across all 12 pages
- Integrated visual content into an interactive web experience with voice narration
